

The Best Last-Minute Memorial Day Weekend Trips

Sometimes last-minute trips are the most fun and spontaneous way to travel. If planning isn't your thing, read on to see some of the best last-minute trips to take for Memorial Day Weekend coming up in just a few short days. As long as you have the jet ready and a bag packed with your summer essentials, you're bound to have a fantastic weekend.

Credit: Chatham Bars Inn

Chatham Bars Inn

Cape Cod, Massachusetts

Cape Cod is one of New England's hottest summer getaways, pairing rich American history with some of the best beaches (and food) on the East Coast. Chatham Bars Inn, located in Chatham, is one of the Cape's most luxurious hotels with shingle-style cottages, a whitewashed facade and seaside decor. Amateur and avid fishermen will love the hotel's Bar Tender 18-person fishing boat to enjoy deep sea fishing and boating along the Cape Code National Seashore, only accessible by boat. The luxurious cottages have direct beach access with a private terrace. Linen fabrics, colonial-style bed frames and printed curtains recall colonial times while serene shades of light blue and beige mimic the colors of the natural surroundings. Enjoy the world-class spa, dining at one of four locations on property and other events throughout the summer. chathambarsinn.com